

Office of Acquisition and Grants Management

May 12, 2011

TO: Interested Parties

SUBJECT: Request for Proposal Number CMS10thSOW
Amendment Number 4

Ladies and Gentlemen:

This document officially issues Amendment Number 4 to RFP Number CMS10thSOW. Offerors are advised that they must acknowledge receipt of all Amendments Standard Form 33 which shall be completed and included in the Business Proposal. The purpose of this amendment is to:

- Re-issue Industry Questions and Government Responses
- Re-issue Section J, Attachment J-10
- Re-issue Section J, Attachment J-23b
- Issue Technical Memoranda as follows:
 - QIO Manual Chapter 4
 - QIO Manual Chapter 7
 - QIO Manual Chapter 9
 - EMTALA Reviews

Offerors should be aware of the following:

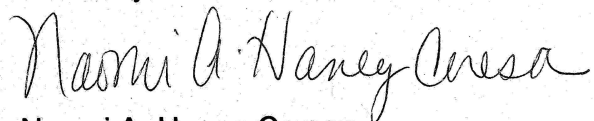

1. The due date and time for submission of proposals responding to the competitive States of ME, VT, ID and TX and Renewal QIOs remains unchanged. Proposals shall be submitted on or before May 20, 2011 at 12:00 p.m. (NOON) local prevailing time (Baltimore, MD).
2. The due date and time for submission of proposals for the Territory of VI remains unchanged. Proposals shall be submitted on or before May 27, 2011 at 12:00 p.m. (NOON) local prevailing time (Baltimore, MD).
3. Offerors are informed that responses provided to Industry Questions in no way alter or amend the RFP. The only amended sections to the RFP are those included with this amendment.
4. Questions and Responses are re-issued due to an error in numbering.

5. Amendment numbering on the Fed Biz Opps website differs from that which is referred to in the Amendment Documents issued by CMS. To clarify for offerors, Fed Biz Opps tracks every change that is made to the original synopsis. Below is a list of the postings that Offerors should acknowledge receiving in their proposal:

April 6, 2011	Posting of QIO Requirements for Renewal
April 18, 2011	Posting of RFP for Renewal and Competitive Requirements (Fed Biz Opps refers to this as Amendment 1)
May 4, 2011	Amendment 1—VI Extension (Fed Biz Opps refer to this as Amendment 2)
May 6, 2011	Amendment 2—Industry Questions and Government Responses as well as other Revised Documents (Fed Biz Opps refers to this as Amendment 3)
May 9, 2011	Revised Business Proposal Forms (Fed Biz Opps refers to this as Amendment 4)
May 11, 2011	Amendment 3—Proposal Due Date and Time Extension (Fed Biz Opps refers to this as Amendment 5)
May 12, 2011	Amendment 4—As previously stated on page 1 of this document (Fed Biz Opps will refer to this as Amendment 6).

5. All other terms and conditions of the RFP remain unchanged and in effect.

Sincerely,

Naomi A. Haney-Ceresa
Contracting Officer